2021 Hawaii Floodplain Management Virtual Training

Sponsored by FEMA Region 9 in partnership with Hawaii DLNR, these workshops will discuss floodplain management principles, the NFIP, and Hawaii standards.

Target Audience
Floodplain administrators, elected officials, building officials, and permit and zoning officials are welcome to attend.

Training Dates & Times

NFIP Basics
Wednesday, February 24—9am HST—90 mins

Elevation Certificate Basics
Thursday, February 25—9am HST—2.5 hours

Permitting Floodplain Development
Wednesday, March 3—9am HST—90 mins

Inspecting Floodplain Development
Wednesday, March 3—1pm HST—90 mins

Reviewing an Elevation Certificate
Thursday, March 4—9am HST—2.5 hours

Tools for BFE, LOMA Basics, MSC
Wednesday, March 10—9am HST—2.5 hours

How to Review a No-Rise Analysis
Thursday, March 11—9am HST—1 hour

Construction Certificates
Thursday, March 11—11am HST—1 hour

Continuing Education Credit available for ASFPM CFMs

For more information:
Kristen Akamine
Kristen.C.Akamine@hawaii.gov

Class sizes are limited 50 participants, please register early to reserve your spot!

NFIP Basics
Registration Link

Session will cover basics of the National Flood Insurance Program and Hawaii’s participation therein, including terminology, roles and responsibilities, and valuable resources for local officials and stakeholders in floodplain development.

Elevation Certificate Basics
Registration Link

Section-by-section basics of the FEMA Elevation Certificate form, including building diagram selection, lowest floor, and common errors.

Permitting Floodplain Development
Registration Link

Eight basic steps to reviewing development in the Special Flood Hazard Area.

Inspecting Floodplain Development
Registration Link

Special considerations for plan reviewers and building code officials when evaluating and inspecting development inside the SFHA, minimum construction standards (from the I-Codes), and conducting inspections.

Reviewing an Elevation Certificate
Registration Link (requires knowledge of the EC form—see EC Basics)
Intermediate-level training on how to review ECs submitted during the development process. Common errors, attachments, how to make corrections.

Tools for Determining BFE, LOMA Basics, FEMA Map Service Center
Registration Link

How to Review a No-Rise Analysis
Registration Link

Construction Certificate Submittal Requirements
Registration Link

Learn the types of supporting documents that must accompany certain floodplain development construction certificates, such as V-zone breakaway walls, engineered flood openings, floodproofing and EC certificates.